YOU ARE INVITED

to the HCW 2019 conference May 17 – 19
to connect, reconnect, explore May 16 – 20

come early, stay late!

This is an invitation to join us on the Canadian west coast to celebrate haiku and our haiku community.

We are working on a rich and diverse program of offerings — some flavoured by the Vancouver coastal location and much, as always, determined by the people who come together to share and connect.

Conference registration will commence mid-afternoon, Friday, May 17, and we will wrap up proceedings in our conference room at mid-day Sunday, May 19.

We recommend you come early if you can — arrive in the afternoon, Thursday, May 16, in time to settle in your room and connect with others for dinner.

Since the HCW at UBC in 2006 and 2009, there have been many changes at UBC, but things still tend to shut down on a holiday long-weekend between academic sessions. We are planning to have Saturday lunch and dinner catered in the conference room. All rooms have fridges, so we encourage you to pick up food supplies on Friday in the day. Friday would also be an opportunity to explore some of the UBC campus attractions (<https://attractions.ubc.ca>).

Stay late! We will plan an off-campus ‘field trip’ for Sunday afternoon. We are working on a Monday post-conference event at the Historic Joy Kogawa House (www.kogawahouse.com). And then there’s Vancouver . . . and the sea to sky . . .

We look forward to seeing you here!

Your co-chairs,

Lynne Jambor (admin/logistics)
Vicki McCullough (program)
